1968, promises to be most progressive in the building line Weldon has ever experienced. Plans have been drawn for a large three story brick building on Second Street, with a beautiful opers house on the third floor. Messrs. S. D. Hancock and T. M. House are the parties interested.

The handsome brick building for the Weldon Furniture Company is nearing completion, and work will begin soon on a lumber manufacturing, plant, where flooring, cealing, moulding, sash, doors and blinds will be made.

The Weldon Lumber Company is now having eight brick kilns installed to take the place of the wooden structures. In fact there is a regular building boom here.
